Hampton Court Palace was originally built by Cardinal Wolsey, who gave it to Henry VIII. It was a Royal residence until the reign of George II, since when the private rooms have been apportioned to certain ladies as a place of residence and the State rooms thrown open to the public. The gardens are very extensive, and include the well-known Maze and the famous Giant Vine planted in 1768.

Monday

Have managed the ticket to Harry who received the tickets. I have written by letter at the time I am sure he will be sure B.B. & Kit are at work on Thursday, but I hope Harry will succeed as I should not like to be there myself with regard to Friday I shall be at King's College at 3.45 on Friday. Hence Unless you make a definite appointment for Friday it will be inconvenient for me to travel back to Broad St Station immediately after to get there at 5.30. In the case of definite arrangement I should do it. Either come to College at 3.45 - 4 pm or let me know definitely, when you would be at Broadst station on or before Thursday evening, (when I shall be seeing Harry at the Concert) Many thanks for your letter. Have noted all you said about Benfleet

I got a selection of p.c's for the children at Selfridges', but none nice of London. Must try again somewhere. An extraordinary sea-fog up on the roof, such fun. Love from D. M.
